

Corey Lake Orchards Photography Policy

We welcome those who wish to use Corey Lake Orchards as a backdrop/ setting for any photography. We invite you to capture the beauty of our farm and enjoy the scenery, but we do have some guidelines we ask you to follow.

“Photographer” is defined as the person taking the pictures, the subjects in those pictures, and other people in attendance. This includes both professional and amateur.

“Studio” is any public area or selected non-public areas of the farm known as Corey Lake Orchards.

Time and date may be modified as agreed by both parties. This includes:

- photo sessions conducted during and outside the business hours of 8 am to 6 pm (within reason).
- access to selected non-public areas of the farm as well as public areas

CLO management staff will talk with the photographer in advance and show the non-public areas available for the photo session.

If photos are posted online or on social media sites, CLO requests attribution. Tag photos @coreylakeorchards and/or link to Corey Lake Orchards on social media sites.

Photographers and clients to check-in with the staff at the CLO Farm Market. You will be given driving instructions to the designated area(s). Photographers will be given a lanyard which must be clearly displayed while on property. The lanyard must be turned in to the field manager (or market if a field manager is not present) at the end of the session.

Non-public areas may be seasonal and include but are not limited to:

- Orchard blossoms (seasonal)
- Apple, peach, cherry orchard (with fruit), blueberry field
- Field backdrops of cover crops, corn, wheat, soybeans or other selected produce
- Pumpkins
- Sunflowers
- Grape vineyards
- Old/ operational buildings
- Farm implements
- Old schoolhouse
- Other areas as available

Public areas by the market include:

- Terrace garden
- Log seating
- Playground

- Other seasonal photo displays
- General market area

Photographer must abide by the following rules.

1. Respect the “naturalness” of the property
2. Treat the property as if it were your own; remember you are on private property.
3. Do not pick produce or flowers you see growing.
4. Do not step on produce or plants, trim branches, etc.
5. Dogs are allowed but must be on leash or have a leash handy.
Photographer/client must clean up after the animal.
6. No trash to be discarded on premises.
7. The use of drones is strictly prohibited.
8. All photos should be family friendly in nature.
9. CLO reserves the right to halt any photography sessions deemed to be disruptive.
10. CLO staff may be present or stop by during the photo shoot.

CLO is not responsible for any injuries or other mishaps occurring while the photographer is on property. The farm has many naturally occurring hazards such as rocks, sticks, holes, uneven ground, wildlife, bees, mosquitos, ticks, other stinging/biting insects/pests, and wildlife.

You will not be allowed in any areas that have been freshly sprayed or chemically treated.
